About Mia + Jason

Mia's Travel Memoirs is a trusted source of travel inspiration, known for its engaging content and high-quality photography. Our blog attracts a diverse audience of avid travelers, with a substantial engagement of readers and also followers across our social media platforms.

When I met my partner (and photographer) Jason, we bonded over our mutual love for travel and photography and decided to turn our hobbies into a working passion!

We use high quality equipment including a Sony A7iii with multiple lenses, an Insta360x, a DJI drone and an iPhone 16 Pro to create our content.
